LAGUNA WOODS • A Hula Hooping pianist, candy-laden elves and a rollicking, old-fashioned sing-along are just a few treats in store for residents who attend the Sunshine Holiday Show, 7 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10 at Clubhouse Five.

"It's a gift to the community; a fun time, because this is a fun time of the year," said musical director Teri "Sunshine" Lutey.

Proceeds from the $5 show will go to Alzheimer's Association Orange County Chapter and the Foundation of Laguna Woods.

Lutey said the cast of 24 performers will make the night of seasonal music memorable. Among them are Tony Barr of Channel 6-TV's "Club Talk" with his Al Jolson imitation; Mark Smith and Priscilla Preston of the Chordells performing "Baby It's Cold Outside;" and the "Globettes" with their rendition of "Deck the Halls," about the goings-on in the newspaper office.

And rumor has it there might even be an appearance from Jolly Old St. Nick himself!

The Globe sat down with Lutey to find out more about the show and why she just can't stop making music.

Q. Earlier this year, you announced you had directed your final musical benefit show in Laguna Woods Village. What changed your mind?

City begins process to fill council vacancy

By JENNIFER KARMARKAR
LAGUNA WOODS GLOBE

LAGUNA WOODS • The City Council agreed Tuesday to fill the council seat vacated by Milton Robbins by appointment rather than election. The city will accept applications beginning at 8 a.m. today through noon Dec. 23.

Robbins, who was mayor pro tem, resigned from the council Nov. 30 after having served since 2004. His term expires in 2016.

Councilman Bert Hack was selected to serve as mayor pro tem until the annual council reorganization Dec. 18.

City officials estimated an election would have cost more than $80,000. Councilwoman Cynthia Conners said the city would be "lucky to get 4,000 voters" at a special election.

"I can't see spending $80 for every four votes," Conners said. "It strikes me as not a good use of the city's funds."

The Council will hold an open meeting Jan. 7, 2014 at 2 p.m. to short list the candidates. Those candidates will be interviewed at an open meeting Jan. 15 at 2 p.m. The council will make a selection that day.

Candidates must be registered voters, who reside in Laguna Woods. Applications are available at City Hall or online at lagunawoodscity.org.

shows have been individual acts. And this one is mostly seasonal songs. We have three Christian songs, a Hanukkah song; a lot of winter-themed and Santa songs; a couple Broadway songs and an opera aria. And, of course, we'll have a sing-along — the residents really enjoy that.

Q. Tell me about the organizations that will benefit.

A. The Foundation of Laguna Woods Village is one of the most honorable things that happens here. All the money that goes to them is used for the residents. These are volunteers doing something really good for the Village. We have Villagers who have to make a choice between eating and paying their bills. And the work being done by the Alzheimer's Association is near and dear to my heart; my dad, my dad's mother and sisters had it. In this Village, where we have a much older community, it's very prevalent. And that's why I started the Alzheimer's Club.

Q. How much money do you hope to raise?

A. I'll be happy to give the organizations anything. There will be tables to make donations because it's a nice time of year to do that. I'm hoping people will be generous.

Q. Where else do you plan to perform in the coming months?

A. We'll be doing Alzheimer's Association walks, the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast and singing at local retirement homes. In December we're doing a holiday show at the Irvine Cottages.

Q. Are there plans for another benefit show here in the Village?

A. Not at this time. But who knows what the future will bring.

Democrats to hold holiday party

Submitted by LINDA NEARING

Although some business will be conducted at the event, including Legislative Action and the announcement of the 2014 slate of officers and directors (with nominations also taken from the floor), the Democratic Club's Annual Holiday Party is primarily a fun event to thank members for their support and volunteerism during the year. It will be held this year on Wednesday, Dec. 11, at Clubhouse Three, Dining Room Two with doors opening at 6 p.m. (note earlier start time). For a donation of $5, members and their guests will enjoy cookies, snacks, sandwiches, punch, wine and entertainment, including a Facebook presentation.

Everyone is asked to bring an unwrapped toy for donation to South County Outreach.

SCO's "Adopt-a-Family" project, which provides meals and gifts for an SCO client family for the holidays. In addition, Club volunteers have also spent time at the SCO facility in Lake Forest preparing holiday baskets of food. Thanks to Leroy Harrell, Laura Loughrey, Maureen Mehler and new member Molly McFee for their service on Nov. 22. On Dec. 17, Sue Dearing, Ilene Freeman, Joel and Marcia Goldstein, Leroy Harrell, Linda Nearing and Irv Snyder will help out in Lake Forest.

Klein said she was "outraged" by the increase. "We're spending money like drunken sailors. We told the members the $1,500 was all we were going to take, and now we're turning around and slamming people with another fee."

The Trust Facility Fee was implemented in January 2012 after California civil code was amended to allow such fees to be collected by common interest developments. Souza said the fee is used solely for maintenance and construction of community amenities. "It's these so assessments will not have to be

The board also voted, 6-5, to re-establish the Government and Public Relations Committee.

Mutual 50 President Ryna Rothberg updated the board on the Joint Task Force to Analyze the GRF Trust and Bylaws Committee. Rothberg said the committee was at an impasse because United Mutual has not approved the task force's recommendations, as the other boards have. "Until that happens, we can't go forward."

Heather Gerson reported GRF's operating revenue was $30.1 million as of Oct. 31. Gerson said that was $426,000 worse than budgeted due to the elimination of Village Green

Sunshine Holiday Show Benefits Alzheimer's and the Foundation

With a wealth of seasonal music, many entertaining performers and an auditorium filled with an enthusiastic audience, the Sunshine Holiday Benefit Show on December 10 kicked off the season with fine flourish.

Twenty-four dedicated performers presented a variety of joyful holiday music in a show that produced over $2,400 (combined ticket sale proceeds and donations) which was presented to representatives of the Alzheimer's Association and the Foundation of Laguna Woods Village.

Highlights of the holiday show included a delightful parody of "Deck The Halls" sung by the staff of the Laguna Woods Globe (the Globettes) - Barbara Potter, Editor, JenniferKarmarkar and Pat Bicoy. Tony Barr performed a brilliant impersonation of legendary AlJolson, Sunshine Lutey sang a beautiful Hanukah song and the Grace Sams - Hank Gioiadio delighted the audience with thrilling vocal pieces. Ed Hayes, Sunshine Company's man of many voices, charmed the audience with several holiday songs including a rendition of "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" while Phil Silverman rocked the house with a comic version of the Rudolph and Santa sagas. Jon McCoy played an expressive Santa in costume and song complete with elves who distributed candy to the audience. ChuckPereau graced the stage with a gorgeous operatic aria and holiday offerings while an animated Susan Hsu led the audience in traditional Christmas music. During much of the program Catherine Paulson, Sam Bettencourt and Krystal DeClercq cavorted merrily on the dance floor. Mark Hochberg fractured the audience with his hula hoop act as JudyHintgen, Sunshine Lutey and Waverly Hanson harmonized a sparkling version of "Winter Wonderland." Priscilla Preston and Mark Smith of the Chordells excited the receptive gathering with the liveliest tunes of the season. Allan Couzens, surrounded by Sunshine belles, presented several charming vocal selections and David Hartman performed his customary duties as Emcee in addition to intoning several baritone selections. Vocalists were wonderfully supported by the Sunshine band which included Shirley Docheff and Mark Hochberg at the piano, Chuck Meyer on violin, Allan Couzens on saxophone, JudyHintgen on clarinet, Phil Silverman on guitar, Sunshine Lutey on bass guitar, Mark Smith on drum and Chuck Pereau and Susan Hsu on ukulele.

The gift of a lively and engaging musical show from the Sunshine performers and the generosity of the audience resulted in a greatly appreciated donation to the two charities.
