

I'm Living A Dream

Oh, I was quite sure it just couldn't be; I didn't believe it could happen to me.

Romance is for books. It's pure fantasy – Where you find your true love and you live happily.

But into my world of reality, Came a live walking dream; he was talking to me.

I couldn't believe it had happened to me. This fairytale theme – I'm living a dream.

Yes, more times than one I emphatically said; Will be many years before I am wed.

I want time to grow, need time to be free. I'm enjoying my life; independent I'll be.

But into my world so carefully planned, Came a dream so unreal; he offered his hand.

I couldn't believe it had happened to me; This fairytale theme – I'm living a dream.

Together for Life – was just what we planned, as I talked with my love and accepted his hand.

We shared all our dreams – school, work, family; then we started our lives and we lived fearlessly.

And even today, my sweet love and I – We walk hand in hand with dreams to the sky.

I didn't believe it could happen to me. This fairytale theme – I'm living a dream.

And so I have found that dreams can come true. It happened to me; it could happen to you.

My wish is for you, to find for you own, the treasures of love as I have been shown.

Where into your world wherever you are, May love shine in like a bright burning star.

You might not believe it could happen to you; this fairytale theme – it can really be true.

This fairytale theme – I'm living a dream!
